

Working with families and criminal justice concerns

Overview

This training charts the relationship between a drug user and their family through arrest, imprisonment, treatment and release, exploring the perspectives of a prisoner and their mother, partner and child.

Learning Objectives

- Identify support strategies that can be used by or with those affected by imprisonment and drug issues
- Enhance multi-perspective awareness of family issues connected to drug use, imprisonment and resettlement
- Summarise key resettlement issue
- Develop awareness of communication barriers
- Identify ways to improve resettlement prospects.

How to access this training

Commission: Adfam can deliver this training in-house to your organisation/agency. The course can be tailored to fit your bespoke training needs, for groups of 12-20 people.

Individuals: see the Adfam website for a list of upcoming training dates and venues.

Cost:

£130 per person on courses open to individuals. Commissions start at £700 (which can train up to 20) and are based on a sliding scale of income.

Contact us

Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please contact us on 020 7553 7640 or email training@adfam.org.uk.